

WHO WE ARE

Formed in 2019, SAWN is a 501©(3) nonprofit corporation that cultivates and promotes an inclusive platform for professional South Asian women in the Twin Cities. We are a growing community of multi-generational women - from rising stars and emerging leaders to seasoned professionals.

600 AND COUNTING - SAWN MEMBERS
INCLUDE EXECUTIVES, ENTREPRENEURS, WORKFORCE RETURNEES AND STUDENTS.

WHAT WE DO

SAWN hosts a variety of events to foster professional development as well as meaningful connection, including meetups, workshops, fireside chats and panel discussions. Our flagship event, Saphal brings together dynamic women leaders from across the diaspora to own and celebrate our bi-culturalism.

7 NETWORKING AND DEVELOPMENT
EVENTS FOR MEMBERS SINCE FORMING IN 2019.

HOW WE WORK

SAWN is governed by a seven-member Board of Directors that executes our vision for the future. Our organic leadership model encourages members to join our committees to help advance diverse ideas and programming. SAWN is also committed to community engagement with local nonprofits that align with our values.

IMPACTFUL PARTNERSHIPS WITH I.WILLMPLS, SEWA-KARUNA WOMEN
LEAD, AND PRATHAM.

WHO CAN JOIN

YOU! SAWN appreciates the unique voice and experience each one of us brings to our dynamic community, and we welcome women from all walks of life.

WHAT'S NEXT

SAWN has grown significantly since our launch in 2019, and we take pride in continuing to scale new heights! Looking ahead, we are focused on accelerating our impact through community building, learning and shared empowerment . As always, we remain committed to enhancing member value through opportunities for both personal and professional development.
